Life is a patchwork of experiences

About me

Travel Writer, Photographer, Quilter

Traveling the world is one of my deepest passions which continues to add to my ever growing quilt of life experiences. I like to focus my traveling lens on history, art, architecture, nature, cruising, and soft adventures with a touch of luxury. I also love the challenge of taking beautiful photos that capture the essence of the location I am visiting. And I like to make quilts inspired by my travels.

BRANDS I HAVE WORKED WITH

Awarded Travel Writing and Photography

I have received over 30 awards for both my writing and photography including 2 Lowell Thomas Awards from SATW which included a silver for best Travel Blog; 24 NATJA awards for writing and photograph; and 13 IFWTWA awards for photography. Find all my awarded content at <https://quiltripping.com/category/awards/>

Freelance Writing

I also do freelance writing and always look to place stories about the brands I work with in other publications or websites. I have open letters of assignment with GoNomad.com and fwtmagazine.com. You can find links to all my freelance published content on my website at: <https://quiltripping.com/bylines/>
